Project Name	Create a Google business profile

Explanation :

If your business either has a physical location that customers can visit, or travels to customers where they are, you can create a Business Profile on Google. To make sure your Business Profile won't be suspended we require that you:

Avoid prohibited content and behavior. These policies apply to all of your Business Profile content.

Reflect your business accurately.

Comply with the product guidelines in this article.

Understand basic guidelines

To maintain high quality information on Google, follow this list of guidelines for local businesses. These guidelines can help you avoid common problems, including changes to your information or, in some cases, removal of your business information from Google.

For the best results managing your Business Profile:

Represent your business as it's consistently represented and recognized in the real world across signage, stationery, and other branding.

Make sure your address and/or service area is accurate and precise.

Choose the fewest number of categories it takes to describe your overall core business.

There should only be one profile per business, as this can cause problems with how your information displays on Google Maps and Search.

Content guidelines for Business Profiles

Published content should highlight what makes your business unique.

As outlined in our prohibited & restricted content policies, we do not allow content, or solicitation of content, that contains private or confidential information such as personal financial information, government-issued IDs, contact information linked or associated with a name, sensitive records, images, transcripts or links that contain personal information.

Merchants are permitted to post contact information (social media handles, email, phone number) for their own business on their own business profile or in response to reviews, Q&A, etc. However, we do not allow solicitation of personal or confidential information
